

ORTHOPAEDIC ASSOCIATES

of Wisconsin

There is a Difference.

Position: Orthopaedic MRI Technologist

Purpose: Performs examinations of patients of all ages for the purpose of assisting in the diagnosis of patients.

MRI Technologist Job Duties:

- Performs MRI imaging procedures on appropriate anatomical regions in accordance with accepted standards of practice and protocols.
- Completes and signs Patient Screening form and explains the procedure to the patient.
- Maintains patient care, comfort and safety during the exam.
- Maintains technical competency through continued education.
- Under guidance and approval of site Medical Doctor, administers contrast agents according to site-specific protocols.
- Cooperates with facility healthcare personnel and complies with facility policies and procedures.
- Maintains current Permits to Practice in all states in which services are performed.
- Provide images to the facility in the desired site format.
- Prepare Release of Information requests for patients, requesting outside providers, etc.
- Performs equipment quality checks and troubleshoots problems. Calls for service and notifies all pertinent team members.
- May assist with the set up and tear down of equipment in accordance with manufacturers' guidelines.
- Maintains a clean environment inside and outside of the facility.
- Clean the MRI room to avoid infection and get it ready after use for the treatment of other patients.
- Completes necessary administrative tasks.
- Maintains patient confidentiality.
- Cooperates with facility healthcare professionals and complies with facility policies/procedures.
- Complies with all safety policies and regulations.
- Compliant with MRI safety.

ORTHOPAEDIC ASSOCIATES

of Wisconsin

There is a Difference.

Position Qualifications:

Education:

- High School graduate or equivalent.
- Certified MR Technologist.
- Graduate of an approved two-year Radiologic Technology program.
- Possess a valid, current, unrestricted WI state radiation operator certificate (with no limitations, stipulations or pending adverse actions).
- CPR/AED certified.

Special Skills and Requirements:

- Must be registered with American Registry of Radiologic Technologists or be registry eligible and possess a permit to practice where applicable.
- Must be able to interact with client personnel and team members in an autonomous responsible, professional and ethical manner.
- Must be able to produce very high-quality special imaging with little supervision.
- Must be willing and able to assist the Radiologist in his/her interpretation of exams.
- Must be able to function effectively in a team-oriented environment.
- Must be flexible, reliable and demonstrate sound judgment and initiative.
- Ability to lift a minimum of 60 pounds as well as assist with patient maneuvering.
- Must be familiar with age specific criteria.
- Able to demonstrate competency in all applicable areas.
- Knowledge of medical anatomy and terminology.
- Must be detailed orientated with excellent organizational and communication skills.
- Strong organizational, judgment, communication and analytical skills; sometimes under pressure.
- Ability to multi-task and maintain an efficient workflow.
- Cooperative and professional behavior toward patients, peers, providers, management and visitors.
- Must be willing to work flexible days and hours as needed.
- Ability to promote favorable facility image with patients, providers, insurance companies and general public.
- Ability to make decisions and solve problems.
- The ability to contribute in a team environment and and/or independently, to provide excellent customer service.
- Skilled in proper x-ray positioning & techniques and following prescribed safety standards.
- Working knowledge of EPIC & McKesson PACs.